the majority seated eight of the silver contestants, thereby giving a total of 20 silver men out of the 28 in the Michigan delegation and under the unit rule swinging the entire 28 to the silver column. The minority report favors the retention of the eight gold delegates who had thus far held the balance of power under the unit rule in keeping the 28 votes of Michigan in the gold column. The issue on the two reconstructions column. The issue on the two reports involved intense personal feeling in which charges were made that federal offices had been barrered in order to control the Michigan state convention. There was every indication that this personal element would be aired on the floor of the convention, and that the question of federal influence would be brought in for that severe criticism which has thus far proceeded behind closely guarded forces. If such was the feeling over this contest, it promised to take much time and possibly to crowd other business later into the day. It was also regarded by many as furnishing the opportunity to the gold men to leave the convention on the grounds that the silver forces were riding over them rough shod.

Called to Order.

At exactly 10:50 Senator Daniel rapped for order. The minions of the sergeant-at-arms had some difficulty in clearing the aisles. When all were seated and order was obtained it was found that the spaces reserved for the New York, Massachusetts, Maine, Maryland and New Jersey delegations were practically vacant. The threat of a bolt came home with a realizing sense, but it was explained that these delegations were still in conference, discussing the situation. Rev. Francis Edward Green, an Episcopal minister of Cedar Rapids, Ia., who has the distinction of having prayed for peace and harmony at two previous Democratic conventions, was introduced and delivered the invocation. The minister's voice was strong, but of pleasing timber, and the vast audience stood and listened attentively to his plea for grace.

The reading clerk of this convention is in appearance a fac-simile of the late "Bill Nye," and his voice has apparently been trained in calling from mountain top to mountain top. It overpowered the bustle of two or three thousand people elbowing their way down the aisles, when he made the routine announce ments after the prayer. Senator Daniel was a commanding figure as he stood by the flag draped desk announcing that the first business of the day would be the reports of committees. A hitch in the machinery appeared at once, for the committee on credentials, which always reports first, was not ready with its recommendations. In the meantime, while the convention was waiting, a diversion was furnished by the band which was brought to Chicago by the Bland marching club. The convention band was pounding away in the gallery over the platform when a counter blare was heard in the far western end of the hall to the right of the delegates, and the Bland band came into sight filing up the long aisle to the topmost row of seats playing the pyrotechnic strains of "Dixie," which never fails to affect a Democratic convention like a match dropped into a powder barrel. It produced the customary explosion of enthe Missouri many of their supporters climbing into their chairs to shout. "Maryland, My Maryland," inspired another demonstra-

Governor Hogg Speaks.

Then Chairman Daniel put a motion that the convention take a 5-minute re cess and be addressed by Governor Hogg of Texas. The motion was carried. The former Lone Star governor, who is best known to the world at large through his fight against the railroad corporations in his state, is easily the biggest man in the convention. His weight is not less than 300 pounds and he stands some inches above six feet. He has lost the beard which he wore last summer during his invasion of Wall street to lure northern capital southward, and faced the friendly audience with a round, smooth face. He proceeded with a voice like the base of a church organ to hurl thunderbolts against gold and Republicanism. He began by congrat-ulating the convention on the proud opportunity before it. The tactics of Democrats, not bolters, he declared, should prevail in accordance with the time-honored Democratic doctrine of majority rule. He spoke of the preservation of the liberties of the people from the yoke of Republican rule. The party, he said, had made a mistake four years ago which would not be repeated. If the Republican party returned to power it foreboded a nation of minions and millionaires.

He denounced the growing tendency toward the centralization of govern-ment, which, he said, must eventually mean the oppression of the people by the bayonet and the destruction of their liberties. He drifted thence into a discussion of the tariff question. His purpose was simply to hold the attention of the convention until the credentials committee was prepared to report.

Distinguished guests on the platform were Don M. Dickinson, Senators Duwere Don M. Dickinson, Senators Du-bois and Pettigrew, Congressman Towne of Minnesota, Colonel W. H. Hepburn, Iowa; John Allen, Tupelo, Miss., the wit of the house of representatives; ex-Congressman Phil Thompson of Ken-tucky, ex-Senator Butler of South Caro-line, who was defeated for we cleative. lina, who was defeated for re-election to the senate by Ben Tillman. Among the ladies on the platform were Mrs. U. S. Grant and Mrs. Potter Palmer.

The Texas ex-governor's attack on the Republican platform met with a hearty sympathy from the audience. Some of the gold men, however, showed openly that they were opposed to some of his extreme expressions. When ex-Goverextreme expressions. When ex-Gover-nor Hogg had finished Senator White assumed the gavel temporarily, while the crowd cried for Hill, Bryan, Black burn, Altgeld and others. Delegate Money of Mississippi moved that Senator Biackburn be requested to address the convention, and the crowd yelled itself hourse in approval. Other Speakers.

Senator Blackburn addressed the convention for several minutes and when he had finished the 15,000 in the hall fairly went wild. Another demonstration almost equal to this rose when the chairman inquired if Mr. Bryan of Nebraska was in the hall. They were disappointed, however, as the young orator could not be found. Calls for Hill were not heeded by the New York senator. Delegate Hope of Illinois called for Governor Altgeld.

Senator White beat a sharp penetratting click with his gavel until the convention consented to subside a trifle and then he announced that Governor Altgeld of Illinois was called for. Gover-nor Altgeld has many warm friends in Illinois and many enemies equally warm and they sprung to the chance to voice their sentiments. The Illinois delegates over in the section to the chairman's right led an enthusiastic cheer which was taken up by other delegations and chorused by the galler-

Curiosity was rife to see the man whom the gelegates had heard so much about and few had ever seen, so many mounted their chairs and faced toward filinois. The Democratic governor made his way into the aisle and stood there, a pale-faced man, with a dark beard, closely cut, and close-cropped black hair and jet eyes that snapped and gleamed like sparks while he stood with uplifted arm appealing for attention. Few could see him, and there was much crowding and confusion until he mounted his chair under the Illinois standard, and then the cheer was redoubled. His op-ponents also, when they spied him from the galleries, were inflamed to wrath, and they showered upon him a sputter

Finally ex-Governor Overmeyer of Kansas was brought to the platform and appeared the appetite of the crowd for several minutes as he pleaded for the "dollar of the daddies." For an-other five minutes the band held them in check with stirring music. Then the cries for Altgeld were renewed, and at last, with evident reluctance, the Illinoisan surged forward to the stage.

Great curiosity existed among thousands who had never heard and some who had never before seen this great power in this part of the country. Some of the delegates crowded to the foot of the stage, not because his voice was weak, as his tones reached out to the furthermost limits of the hall, but to get a clear view of the man. With great deliberation he opened with the statement that he had not come here to make a speech, but to assist in the nomination of the next president of the United States and the formulation of a declaration of principles that would again offer help to the party of the people. This opening sentiment warmed up the audience, and soon the pale, al-up the audience, and soon the pale, almost haggard face of the Illinois governor grew flushed. His gestures became quick and vehement, and before he had proceeded far the convention was swayed as by a cyclone by his oratory. When he declared that hungry men and children were looking to this convention for relief, there was a great demonstration. Adroitly he worked on to his climax. He described the toil and blood and sweat of the millions, which was being doubled by the shrinkwhich was being doubled by the shrink ing standard of values. Then he paused, and, flinging his arms out before him, asked:

"Will you let them continue it?"
-"No! No! Never!" came in thundering chorus from 10,000 throats.

As he finished and descended from the platform he was accorded another great demonstration. The Illinois delegation mounted their chairs and frantically waved their banners. Delegates from other delegations crowded the aisles to wring his hand, while the terraced galleries yelled and shouted.

After the interlude by the band, New England had her inning, when George Fred Williams, the stalwart, fashionably attired, blonde mustached, scholarly looking young ex-congressman from Massachusetts, whose conversion to free silver was recently announced, was called to the platform amid great en-thusiasm. He spoke in a new vein.

NIGHT SESSION.

Permanent Organization Effected and an Adjournment Taken.

CHICAGO, July 8. - The crowds returned to convention hall expecting a protracted night session and decisive action on the platform. There was further delay, however, in the committee on credentials and in the meantime the band played and as the evening advanced, myriads of electric lights added trilliant animation to the scene. The Michigan contest, which had excited sharp division in committee was reported at 6 o'clock, giving the silver forces a majority of the delegation and thus permitting them to swing the 28 votes of Michigan for silver. It excited warm debate. When, after two hours of speech making, the final vote was taken it gave the occasion for the most spontaneous and stirring dem-onstration that has occurred. As the New York delegation cast its solid vote to sustain the Michigan gold dele-gates, a great shout went up from the thousand delegates and spectators, which grew in intensity as it proceeded, while men jumped on chairs and waved hats, canes, handkerchiefs and shouted themselves hoarse. It was 18 minutes before the rapping of the chairman could bring the convention back to could bring the convention back to order. Then a moment later, the chairman announced that the silver men had a decisive majority there was a repetition of the wild demonstration this time by the silver men, lasting 20 minutes. It was evident that the leaders desired time for counsel and they were determined not to sure the they were determined not to urge the platform to a final issue tonight. With the forcible speech of Senator White in taking the chair, the permanent organization was perfected, and at 9:30 o'clock the convention adjourned until 10 o'clock today.

BYNUM'S ASPIRATIONS.

It Is Alleged He Is Seeking a Federal Judgeship. CHICAGO, July 9.-Ex-Representative

Bynum of Indiana is on hand trying to arrange for the appointment of judge in Oklahoma to succeed Scott. Mr. By-num is seeking political seclusion with other goldites and can hope for reward only during the remainder of this administration. He is working with the gold crowd and by this hopes to gain enough favor to reach the appointment. Mr. Bynum explained matters to an Oklahoman. He insisted that he be-lieved that he had things arranged for the appointment. In the meantime Wiley of the Oklahoma City land office, wants the place, and has some local indorsements, as well as some aid from Missouri. Colonel Lane of El Reno, is making an effort also. Judge Scott's resignation is to be accepted in due time. It is intimated that Judge Tarsney will be given the Oklahoma City district, and the new judge will be as-signed to the El Reno district.

New York's Bolters.

CHICAGO, July 9 .- It was learned late last night that ex-Postmaster General Bissell of Buffalo, a delegate from New York's Thirty-second district, had left the city and could not be present again. Franklin Bartlett of New York and Do Lance Nicoll of New York were added to the list of those who would leave the convention and allow their places to be filled by alternates.

BLAND GAINS TENNESSEE.

The Twenty-Four Votes of That State Comes Over to the Missourian.

CHICAGO, July 9.—The Bland boom has gained an important accession in the 24 votes of Tennessee, which will be cast for the Missouri candidate on the first ballot and until the delegation shall see fit, in the event of a long contest, to take up another man. The decision to support Bland was made at a meeting of the delegation held at a late hour last night.

On a rollcall 13 delegates expressed their preference for Bland and 11 for Boies. As the unit rule binds the delegation its 24 votes will be cast together.

SIMPSON ON CANDIDATES.

Well Known Populist Predicts Who Can Be Elected.

CHICAGO, July 9.—Ex-Congressman Jerry Simpson of Kansas, one of the best known Populists in the country, said: "If the Democrats will nominate Teller of Colorado of Sibley of Pennsylvania the Populist convention will ratify the nomination of Bland, if it is made. Teller is a national man; Sibley is a very liberal Democrat with a consistent record for silver; but Bland is such a Democrat as we cannot support. To ratify him would be to give up our party organization."

The Platform.

We, the Democrats of the United States, in we, the Democrate of the United States, in national convention assembled, do reaffirm our allegiance to those great essential principles of justice and liberty, upon which our institutions are founded and which the Democratic party has advocated from Jefferson's time to our own—freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of conscience, the preservation of personal rights, the equality of all citizens before the law and the faithful observance of Constitutional limitations.

During all these years the Democratic party has resisted the tendency of selfish interests to the centralization of governmental power and steadfastly meintained the integrity of the dual government established by the founders of this republic of republics. Under its goid-ance the arrea principle of local self-government has found its best expression in the maintenance of the rights of the states and in the assertion of the accessity of confining the general government to the exercise of the powers granted by the constitution of the United States.

Hecognizing the this money system is parameunt to all other as this time, we invite attention to the fact that the federal constitution manney silver and gold logother as the money metals of the United States, and that the first coinage law passed by congress under the constitution. Made the silver dollar unit. We dealer that the act of 1873, demonstrating silver, without the knowledge or approval of the American people has resulted in the sporedsion of gold and a corresponding fall in the prices of commoditae produced by the people; a heavy increase in the burden of taxation and of all debts, public and private; the enrichment of the money lending class at home and alroad; prosperation of industry and impoverishment of the people. We are unalterably opposed to the single rold standard, which has locked fast the prosperity of an industrial people in the paralysis of hard times. Gold monometallism is a British policy, and its adoption has brought other hations into financial servitude to London. It is not only un-American, but anti-American, and it can be fastened on the United States only by the stiffling of that indomitable spirit and love of liberty which proclaimed our political independence in 17to and won in the war of the Revolution.

We demand the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and sliver at the present legal ratio of 18 to 1, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation. We demand that the standard sliver dollar shall be a full legal ratio of 18 to 1, without waiting for the aid or proved and on the nation of the United States i adverse decision of the supreme court on the income tax. But for this decision by the supreme court there would be no deficit in the revenue under the law passed by a Democratic congress. In strict pursuance of the uniform decisions of that court for nearly loo years, that court having under that decision sustained constitutional objections to its enactment, which had been overruled by the ablest judges who have ever sat on that bench. We deciare that it is the duty of congress to use all the constitutional power which remains after that decision, or which may come from its reversal by the court as it may hereafter be constituted, so that the burdens of taxation may be equally and impartially laid, to the end that wealth may bear its due proportion of the expenses of the government.

If we hold that the most efficient way to protect American labor is to prevent the importation of foreign pauper labor to compete with it in the home market, and that the value of the home market to our American farmers and artisans is greatly reduced by a victous monetary system, which depresses the prices of their products below the cost of production, and thus deprives them of the means of purchasing the products of our home manufactures.

The absorption of wealth by the few, the consolidation of our leading railroad systems and the formation of trusts and pools require a stricter control by the federal government of those arteries of commerce. We demand the enlargement of the powers of the interstate commerce commission and such restrictions and guarantees in the control of railroads as will protect the people from robbery and oppression.

We denounce the profligate waste of the money write from the people by conversion eniargement of the powers of the interstate commerce commission and such restrictions and guarantees in the control of railroads as will protect the people from robbery and oppression.

We denounce the profligate waste of the money wrung from the people by oppressive taxation and the lavish appropriations of recent Republican congresses, which have kept taxes high, while the labor that pays them is unemployed, and the product of the people's tool are depressed in price till they no longer repay the cost of production.

We demand a return to that simplicity and economy which best befits a democratic government, and a reduction in the number of displess bindes, the subplies of which drain the substance of the people.

We denounce arbitrary interference by federal authorities in local affairs as a violation of the constitution of the United States and a crime against free institutions, and we especially object to government by injunction, as a new and highly dangerous form of oppression, by which federal judges, in contempt of the laws of the states and rights or citizens, become at once legislators, judges and executioners, and we approve the bill passed at the last session of the United States sonate, and now pending in the hoats, rejative to confenitus by jury in certain cases of contempt.

No discrimination should be induited by the government of the United States in favor of any of its debtors. We approve of the refusal of the Fifty-third congress to pass the registeralized funding bill, and denounce the effort of the present kepublican congress to enact a sinilar measure.

Recognizing the just claims of deserving Union soldiers, we heartily indorse the role of Commissioner Murrhy that no names shall be arbitrarily dropped from the pension roll, and the fact of enistment and service should be deemed conclusive cyldence against disease or disability before enilstment.

We favor the admission of the territories of New Mexico and Arizona in the Union as states and we favor the early admission of all the territor

We are opposed to life tenure in the public service.
We favor appointments based upon merit, fixed terms of office and such an administration of the civil service laws as will afford equal opportunities to all citizens of ascertained nked terms of office and such an administration of the civil service laws as will afford equal opportunities to all citizens of ascertained fitness.

We declare it to be the unwritten law of this Hepublic, established by custom and usage of 100 years, and sanctioned by the examples of the greatest and wisest of those who founded and have maintained our government, that no man should be eligible for a third term of the presidential office.

The federal government should care for and improve the Kississippi river and other great water ways of the republic, so as to secure for the interior states easy and cheap transportation to tide water. When any waterway of the republic is of sufficient importance to demand aid of the government, such aid should be extended upon a definite pash of continuous work until permanent improvement is sequed.
Contiding in the justice of our case and the necessity of its success at the polls, we submit the foregoing declaration of principles and purposes to the considerate judgment of the American people. We invite the support of all citizens who approve them and declars to

GREEK OFFICER INVESTIGATES.

Pulling Down of a Flag May Cause Some Unpleasantness.

AUBORA, Ills., July 9 .- The trouble which occurred here Saturday, when two misguided, patriots pulled down a Greek flag surrounded by American emblems, is growing rather serious. A representative of the Greek consul general of Chicago came here with instructions to investigate the unpleasantness thoroughly and report the details of the affair to the consul. The representative said that the Greek Demetrisno ought not to have been molested as he had his banner completely surrounded by American flags. This is imminently proper under international law, and is a custom observed with nations at peace with each other. Furthermore, the Greek was arrested by the orders of the mayor and taken away without being given a chance to protect his stock. The crowd stole about $25 worth of his stock from his place of business while he was gone. The consul general says that an apology must be made and the flags be returned. besides compensating the man for the loss of his goods. Mayor Scott has gone to Chicago to arrange matters.

Eleven townships have no representation whatever upon their county ticket. The re-publicans divided as fairly as possible. Eight townships are represented by eight candl-dates. The offices are distributed and Greencastle gets but one—all she is entitled to. Voter think of this between now and November!

Coffee is now served out, and for 15 minutes the sailors sit and sip it before beginning the morning work of scrubbing decks and cleaning ship. This work should be finished by five minutes to 8, when the bugle' sounds the first call for colors, upon which the quartermaster bends on the flag to the halyards of the flagstaff at the stern, and a signal boy does the same with the "jack" at the bow, and both stand ready to hoist them at 8 o'clock. A little period of waiting follows, and then 8 o'clock is reported by an orderly to the officer of the deck, who sends the orderly to report it to the captain. Presently the orderly returns and reports:

'The captain says, 'Make it,' sir.''

Thereupon the officer of the deck orders:

'Sound off!''

Then ring out the clear, majestic notes of the salute to the flag, while all men about the deck face it as it soars with dignity aloft and floats out to the morning breeze, officers and men touching their caps in reverential salute as it comes to rest and the music dies away in long, full notes.—Lieutenant John M. The proposed duel between General Bradley T. Johnson and Senor Manuel Ampudia in Cuba will not take place, as friends of the former have interfered and dissuaded him from accepting the chal-lenge on the ground that it was irregular. United States Marshal Covarubius and

Turcomans Have Villages That Are Carried From Place to Place. The Turcomans, who live on the eastern shore of the Caspian sea, carry their villages about with them when they travel. As a tribe sets out on a journey every man packs his wooden house upon a camel, which the animal can easily carry, and when a spot is reached where he and his friends intend to remain for any great length of time the camels are unloaded and a village started which it takes about an It is to be remembered that the houses are real houses and not tents, and that the settlement is not a camp, but a village. The traveling house of the Turcoman is a marvel of skill and ingenuity and is really much lighter, more portable and can be packed into a much smaller compass than any of the so called portable houses that are manufactured and sold in some parts of our country.

The frame is made of strong, light wood laths, about an inch broad by three-quar-ters of an inch thick, crossing each other, when set up in position, at right angles, about a foot apart and fastened at each crossing by the thongs of rawhide so as to be movable, and the whole framework may those toys for children that consist of a squad of wooden soldiers and will expand or close at will, so as to form open or close

One part or more, made in this way, and all inclosing a circle 15 or 20 feet across, form the skeleton of the walls and are firmly secured in place by bands of ropes made of hair or wool, fastened round the end of each rod. From the upper ends of these rods similar rods, bent near the wall and into something less than a right angle, are so disposed that the longer portions slope to the center, and being tied with rope form the roof.

Over this is thrown a covering of black felt, having in the center a large hole which answers both for a window and a chimney. Large pieces of the same coarse black felt are wrapped round the walls, and outside these, to keep all tight, is bound another frame of split reeds or canes or of some very light, tough wood, bound closely to-gether with strong cords.—Pittsburg Dis-

EMBLEM PINS.

Worn by Many People and Made In a Great Variety of Forms.

Emblem scarfpins are made in a variety of forms for various trades and callings. For example, there are two pins made especially for druggists' wear-one a gold mortar and pestle, the other formed of a druggist's scales and mortar combined. These are also made up in the form of watch charms, as are many other of these special designs. There are made for butchers one pin with a cleaver and another having a saw, cleaver and steel com-bined for a head. A scarfpin made for printers has for its head a gold composing stick. For telegraph operators there is a pin with a ticker for a head. There is a scarrpin made with a head in the form of a palette and brushes and with the dabs of paint represented by tiny patches of enamel for artists. For musicians there is a scarfpin in the form of a lyre. For tinners there is a pin with a pair of tinner's shears for a head; for saddlers, a pin with a head in the form of a saddler's knife. There is a pin with a plane for a head for carpen-ters, a horse and rider for jockeys, a loco-motive pin for locomotive engineers, a lan-tern for trainmen and a ticket punch for conductors. There are pins, one with a hook and ladder for head, one with a fire engine and another with a fire hat and trumpets made for firemen, and there are various other special scarfpins. Some of these trade pins are worn more in the city and some more in the country, but altogether their sale is decreasing, while the sale of society pins is increasing, more and more men preferring the society to the trade pin.

Of emblem pins in general far more than ever before are now sold. They are worn by the members of various military, benevolent, veteran, trade and social organiza-tions, by college societies and by graduat-ing classes from schools, and they are produced in a very great variety of design .-
